

The Royal Anthropological Institute's Anthropology of Sport Photo Contest

©K. Longphoto Film: Gaea Girls

Deadline for submissions: 10th December 2010

- Looking for photos of sport in relation to globalisation, identity and the body.
- Open to anyone interested in anthropology, photography and sport.
- For a list of prizes and regulations see reverse side or visit www.discoveranthropology.org.uk

The RAI's Anthropology of Sport Photo Contest

We are looking for photos (black and white or colour) which explore the following themes:

Globalisation

Identity

The Body

Who can participate?

The competition is open to anyone interested in anthropology, photography and sport.

What do contestants win?

All short-listed and winning contestants will have their work published in RAI educational materials. In addition, for each thematic category a £50 gift voucher will be awarded to the winning photograph.

How do I submit my work?

Submission guidelines can be found at: www.discoveranthropology.org.uk

Deadline for submissions: 10th December 2010

To find out more about the photo contest and to download an application form visit: www.discoveranthropology.org.uk or contact Nafisa Fera RAI Education Officer: education@therai.org.uk /0207 387 0455